August 2024 till August 2025 in the YMCA Leipzig, Germany

What we are looking for...

Together with three other volunteers you build the voluntary-team of the YMCA Leipzig. This community helps each other to manage challenging situations. A staff member accompanies you through reflection and counseling. We are looking for a person that is open and communicative and is not afraid to get to know new people (kids and teens). We are looking for someone who shows initiative and motivation in the everyday life. We are looking for someone, who has good knowledge of German (Level A2 till B1). We are a christian association and living out the christian values. That's why we are looking for someone that is christian, who want to talk with other about god, religion and good life. (because we also pray sometimes in the community). You are all of that? We would love to be your companion in this year.

We offer...

- a year full of experiences in the social work field (social work, weekly projects, little daycamps) --- Please choose between kindergarden (age 3 till 6 years), family center (age 0 till 10 years and parents), school club (age 10 till 16 years) and open youth work (age 8 till 27 years) ---
- innovative and independent working (also orientated on your gifts)
- working in a team of motivated young people
- participation in five seminars with volunteers from international YMCAs
- free accommodation in a shared flat with three other volunteers near the working place
- a free bus and tram ticket, pocket money and money to live in the whole year,
- a paid language course
- 26 days of vacation • ...all of this is set in Leipzig, a beautiful historical city full of culture.

What you could expect...

- admit the given circumstances: living in a part of the city with strong social deficits
- 39 working hours per week
- be willing to live and work in a christian community
- in the 4 working areas working is a bit different; you can work with small groups, in your own project, help in school projects or family groups
- time for preparation and subsequent work (to get and make good ideas and tools)
- weekly team meetings, preparation of own projects, time with the mentor, weekly cleaning tasks

Our statement

Our mission statement, "YMCMA in Leipzig – Orientation. Growing. Living" and the following explanations of what this means for our work best describe what the YMCMA stands for: The Young Men's (today, "Person's") Christian association in Leipzig reaches out to our city's children, teens, and adults with holistic recreational and educational programs. In doing so, we also offer guidance and orientation for life in relationship with God through Jesus Christ. People from many different cultures and denominations belong to the variety here at the YMCA. We promote self-initiative, active participation, and sharing in responsibility. The staff at the YMCA authentically live out their faith and form a living community. Thus the YMCA has been an indispensable part of Leipzig since 1893.
